Friends,

The past few weeks have been a very somber time for the country, as we watched Afghanistan fall to the Taliban and lost 13 of our own service members during the chaos. President Biden delivered the final insult this week when he shockingly left hundreds of Americans stranded behind enemy lines.

A President should never abandon American citizens. Yet that's exactly what Joe Biden did. Worse yet, he lied to all of us, saying this would never happen on his watch. "If there's American citizens left, we're going to stay until we get them all out," the President said just weeks ago.

Now, hundreds of our fellow Americans are stranded in Afghanistan. Their fates are solely in the hands of the Taliban. This is a national disgrace. Rather than own up to this failure however, President Biden doubled down on this botched withdrawal.

In Biden's words, the mission was an "extraordinary success." That begs the question many of you are wondering, myself included, which is what part of this was a success, Mr. President?

The images of Biden's Afghanistan catastrophe will be lasting:

- 13 of our service members are dead.
- Hundreds of our citizens are stranded.
- Afghans falling to their deaths, with countless more at the mercy of the Taliban now.
- Billions of dollars of our military equipment in the Taliban's hands.
- Our own service dogs left to die.

Make no mistake, there was nothing successful about this. Adding insult to injury, President Biden gave the nation one more image that will be remembered as he couldn't be bothered to salute the caskets of our fallen troops, opting instead to stare at

I want you to know that I will be relentless in holding President Biden and his Administration accountable for these events. This should never have happened. Our troops and our nation deserve better.

Defending the Right to Work

Today, I introduced a Resolution ensuring workers are protected from forced unionization. States like North Carolina implement Right to Work laws, which gives you the freedom to work without having to fund Leftist political activities through mandatory union dues. But Democrats want to undo these laws.

Speaker Pelosi's $3.5 Trillion socialist spending spree you've been hearing about is bad enough on its own. Now Democrats want to add provisions to cancel Right to Work laws that 27 states support. It's completely absurd. My resolution this week will ensure that doesn't happen. Read more about it here:
